A benefit was stated incorrectly for your new 2015 plan

Dear <Member first name Member last name>,

Thank you for choosing Anthem Blue Cross for your health care coverage. We're writing to tell you about an error in the benefit comparison chart for your 2015 plan. The chart stated that "Abortions will no longer be limited to Therapeutic Abortion." This statement is not correct. Your new plan is required to keep this limitation. This means the correct statement is as follows: "Abortions will be limited to Therapeutic Abortion."

What you need to do

No action is needed on your part. We have fixed the mistake. And we are sorry for any confusion. Just keep this letter with your other important papers as a reference.
